90-Watt Universal Laptop AC/Auto/Air Adapter

CONVENIENT POWER FOR HOME, OFFICE, TRAVEL & MORE

Take high-performance charging power on the road with the DURACELL® 90 Watt Universal Laptop AC/Auto/Air adapter! This ultra-portable adapter plugs into both AC and DC power outlets for use at home, office, automobile — even on a plane. Ten removable voltage-controlling tips give this unique product the ability to charge thousands of different laptop makes and models without the need for multiple adapters; just switch the tip to fit your laptop and you're up and running in seconds. The AC/Auto/Air adapter can simultaneously charge portable USB devices such as cell phones, PDAs, iPods and more while also powering and charging your computer.

This all-in-one charging powerhouse works with most major-brand laptops, including Gateway, Dell, HP/Compaq, IBM/Lenovo, Toshiba, Sony and many others, and is fully backed by DURACELL's three-year warranty.

Reliable power delivery designed with mobile laptop users in mind!

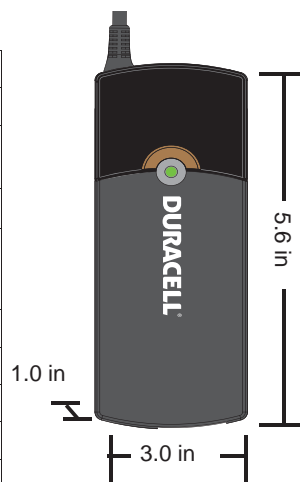

Use at home, office, or even in a car or airplane
